

If they are fighting for their right, where is my right as the person that pays the bill and has to be interrupted by these calls to raise my voice in opposing these calls. Who are they to say that they can call me on my phone.